The Napier Sailing Club has established the following Membership Terms and Conditions that members are expected to adhere to:

1. Boat Identification: Members must prominently display the name of their boat on the A-frame of their trailer.
2. Speed Limit and No Wake: Members must adhere to a 5-knot speed limit in the channel and approach the launching ramps at no wake to ensure safety and minimize disruption to others.
3. Barrier Entrance Cards: Members are not allowed to share their barrier entrance cards with others or use them to grant access to non-members.
4. Parking Limit: Each member is permitted to park only one vehicle with a trailer on-site during each visit. This helps manage limited parking space.
5. Property Respect: Members must not abuse or cause damage to NSC property. This includes not manually forcing the barrier gate open and not powering up/down onto their trailers at the launching ramps, which could potentially damage the facilities.
6. Designated Parking Areas: Members must park only in designated parking areas to ensure efficient use of parking space.
7. Ramp Usage: Members with power boats are instructed to use the front ramps specifically, the North beach ramp is for club ribs Only.
8. Waste Disposal: Members are prohibited from bringing household waste onto the NSC site with the intention of disposing it in NSC waste bins.
9. Recycling Responsibility: Members are encouraged to read recycling labels displayed at the recycle bins to ensure they are recycling responsibly, promoting environmentally friendly practices.
10. Wash Down Facilities: Members are asked to be considerate of all Members, wash down Facilities are for rinsing Vessels and Gear down not a full Valet Service as a Community organisation we pay for every Litre of water consumed.

Any member who is reported or seen disregarding these Term and Conditions will have their membership terminated immediately. For further Information see the NSC Bylaws.
